Who is August Celestial?
Are they a he, or she, a they? A femme fatale? A womanizer? A gallant? This promiscuous acrobat burst on to the Denver drag scene late 2021 and has been shaking things up ever since.

I was able to sit down with this seductor to learn more about who they are and what makes them tick.

Are you are drag queen or king? “ I am the drag experience. <They giggle.>

Jason: Your caught me off guard with that.

Why do you do drag? “ Um. For attention, artistic fulfillment, and because I am good at it.”

What is the toughest part about being performing? “ I would say… The moment right before you go on stage is the toughest. Because, you have to convince yourself that what you envision in you head is going to be delivered on stage.”

What is the most rewarding? “ There are a couple of things. I believe that one element is being able to do it for The Center and for the elder community. The attention. <They giggle.>”

If you could be in a movie what movie would you be in and what character would you play? “ I feel like it would be... In the high fantasy genre. I have always enjoyed morally grey characters because I think they would be fun to play”.

For the record. Do you agree that RuPaul is so old her colostomy bag is made of wood? “ Yes. I do”.

If animals could talk, which would be the most boring? "Um. Probably pigeons... Because their not that coo. <They laugh>.

Do you think cavemen had nightmares about cavewoman? "And wet dreams probably".

Why is a burger not a sandwich? "Fundamentally, it is. Your only options for a sandwich are sandwich, tortilla, pita or open faced toast".

For the record. What has been your biggest accomplishment? "Hum. 6 years of drag. That would be getting to perform for Columbus, Indiana’s first Pride. Because, it turned into this massive event with national attention. Because, that is where Mike Pence is from."

For the record. What would be your do over? "I would have learned how to style wigs. I did not wear wigs for the first 3 or so years of doing drag."

Lunch & Learn — Maintaining Muscle Mass. Learn how to maintain muscle mass now and well into the future, with key foods and supplements all recommended by science based research. This session is presented by the Natural Grocers Nutritional Health Coach Grey.

Bio: Grey Trizna graduated from Virginia Tech with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology. After working in organic and regenerative farming, they moved to Denver with their love for food and eventually decided to pursue a certification in holistic nutrition with the Nutritional Therapy Association. Grey worked with multiple nonprofits focused on accessibility and wellness during her time in Denver. She wants to share her passion for community care with Natural Grocers. Outside of Natural Grocers, you can find her dancing or doing yoga in the park, studying transpersonal psychology, and celebrating art and connection out in her community.

Date: Wednesday, June 7th.
Time: 11:45a—1:00p
RSVP with Jason or Bryant.

Welcome Emma! Our new BSW intern! - Emma is currently a senior working toward her Bachelors in Social Work. She is ecstatic at the opportunity to work with The Center in order to further her education! She moved to Colorado from Texas two years ago, and has been loving it ever since. Emma has actively been engaged in the queer community for the past seven years and hopes to share her passions and knowledge with all of you.

She has spent the past several years working with individuals who have disabilities and when she is not working or in school. She loves to dance, work on her many crafting projects and spend her pay checks at the local thrift shops.

Be sure to say hello to Emma as she will be stopping in at all your groups!
Thank you Zac & Scarlet for a wonderful year! - We had such a great time working with you and learning from you. In their time here, the pair have worked hard on and contributed to the West of 50 program in countless ways. Thanks again & best of luck with your studies!

Zac will be continuing on with his MSW studies. His next placement will be focusing on supporting youth and their mental health needs.

Scarlet graduated with her BSW and was accepted into MSU Denver’s MSW program. “I learned a lot from our elderly people—our grey gays,” said Scarlet. “I had so much information I learned in school that I wanted to pass on to others, and I’ve accomplished that. I did not know how impactful it would be to learn from the community.”

It’s been such a pleasure working at The Center,” said Zac. “I’ve been able to grow so much personally and professionally, and been able to become my authentic self as I move forward with my social work journey.”

“There were sometimes when I would struggle, but those moments were educational,” said Scarlet. “I’ve learned how to take on difficulties and really turn them into positive experiences.”

Social Outing: Vibrant Accessibility — Enjoy our next social outing to the Denver Arts & Venue’s opening exhibit tour of Vibrant Accessibility from 4-5 p.m. on June 16. “Vibrant Accessibility” is a group show featuring artists Chloé Duplessis, Melanie Walker and John Bramblitt. Each artist creates accessible artwork, especially for low vision and blind audiences. The exhibit will be on display at the McNichols Civic Center in the Boettcher Cultural Pavilion from 06/08/23-08/27/23. This tour and discussion will be led by curator, Shanna Shelby and artists Chloé Duplessis and Melanie Walker. This tour and discussion is free and open to the public, and offered through either a virtual or in-person format. Following the tour and discussion, enjoy light refreshments at the opening reception. RSVP with Bryant and inform them if you want to attend in-person or online.

When: Friday, June 16th with the Tour from 4-5pm with reception to follow. Where: McNichols Civic Center, 144 W. Colfax Ave., in the Boettcher Cultural Pavilion.
The Center’s Got Talent! -
There was singing, there was dancing, comedy, theatre, a golf club somehow lodged in a dress, and all 10 1/4 inches of Cowpoke Avi. The last Friday in April we all gathered at Christ Church United Methodist to celebrate and honor the talent in our community. Over 80 community members turned out to support this event and we are so grateful for each and every one of you. Our talent included members from the West of 50 program, new people who have never interacted with The Center before, and local groups like the Denver Women’s Chorus “Take Notes.” The Center’s Got Talent has now become a part of our quarterly large scale events, on par with the Tea Dance, Thanksgiving, and The Holiday Party and Art Show. Thank you to everyone who made this event such a success! And also thank you to our amazing hosts Cowpoke Avi, Steve Anne, and myself, August Celestial. It was an incredible honor to get to perform for you and lead you through the night’s events!

Thank you,
August Celestial

New Orleans icon Big Freedia is dreaming of the future of bounce music. Over the past two decades, the Queen of Bounce has expanded the booming sounds of Southern rap on a string of high-energy, twerk-inducing projects, while showcasing her inimitable charisma on blockbuster hits by Drake and Beyoncé. But where some might rest on their laurels, the Queen Diva still sees plenty of opportunity to expand her empire.

Salina EsTitties is a Cholita, plus-size ghetto superstar. California-born and raised, she has spent the past decade as a leader not only in the Los Angeles drag community but as a “booked and blessed diva” in the entertainment industry at large. Her original drag shows, Eloteria and Shark Bait Sundays, have received tremendous acclaim, the former being voted the Best Drag Show of 2022 in Los Angeles Blade. She has written and released a wide variety of parody videos on YouTube, many of which have reached over a million views. She is also a musician, having released two holiday tracks, Cancel Xmas and Xmas On, and the political anthem STFU Karen.

Marcia Marcia Marcia is every parent's dream: multi-talented, beautiful, smart, and she always gets her homework done on time! You may have spotted Marcia making a splash on the NYC club circuit with her hilarious mixes, handmade outfits, and dynamic dance moves. Her love and talent for theater has landed her spots performing in Broadway shows, including Kinky Boots and the national tour of Hello Dolly. Marcia and Salina EsTitties appeared on RuPaul’s Drag Race Season 15 on MTV.
